

Answer to "Double Acrostic"

Bruce Kuklick

TO EVERY THING A SEASON

Even on the hottest days Mack wore immaculate three-piece suits and starched collars...One of his ball players said he looked like a deacon who mistakenly wandered into Shibe Park. He enforced a curfew, could not abide hard liquor, and eschewed profane language.

Dr. Bruce Kuklick, is the Jeannette P. & Roy F. Nichols Professor of history. To Every Thing a Season: Shibe Park and Urban Philadelphia, 1909-1976, was published by Princeton University Press in 1991.
