

ANSWERS TO MAR/APR DOUBLE ACROSTIC

A. chapstick	N. tingle
B. otiose	O. Estelle
C. noon	P. diminishes
D. apostrophe	Q. tanning
E. roost	R. overkill
F. remote	S. towels
G. Ollie	T. assent
H. Euphrates	U. lowdown
I. Aphra Behn	V. Knight's Gambit
J. defying	W. inspector
K. deleterious	X. nevermore
L. ingestion	Y. graph paper
M. Chapel Hill

Cell phones are this millennium's cigarette ... Perhaps soon it will be acknowledged that rehearsing one's thoughts over the phone, like flossing one's teeth or clipping one's nails or ... blowing smoke, is more appropriately attended to in private. [Joel Conarroe, "Addicted to Talking" [in The New York Times, August 5, 2000, p. A15].