

ANSWERS TO SEPTEMBER'S DOUBLE ACROSTIC

- | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
| A. bussed | N. invariable |
| B. accustom | O. nauseous |
| C. lending | P. griffin |
| D. toadies | Q. gaiety |
| E. zip code | R. edify |
| F. eccentricity | S. ninnies |
| G. logarithm | T. Tarzan of the Apes |
| H. legging | U. lined |
| I. swoon | V. echolalia |
| J. pooh-bah | W. mouth |
| K. official | X. everywhere |
| L. razor-billed auk | Y. nailed |
| M. tense | |

The professionalization and bureaucratization of college life today is burying the life of the mind ... under ... rising piles of specialized knowledge taught by increasingly one-dimensional academics who value ... research above ... teaching.

[E. Digby] Baltzell, Sporting Gentlemen, published by the Free Press, 1995.