

ANSWERS TO NOV/DEC DOUBLE ACROSTIC

- | | |
|--------------|-----------------|
| A. cufflinks | L. apposite |
| B. libido | M. chowder |
| C. eighth | N. Off Broadway |
| D. enisled | O. fitter |
| E. afford | P. Ruffian |
| F. Nantes | Q. Ennis |
| G. aperitif | R. asks in |
| H. Lonnie | S. differs |
| I. Mothballs | T. instant |
| J. abhorrent | U. noshed |
| K. nothing | V. ghostwritten |

I like all beginnings: the first sentence of a book, the first robin in spring, the first whiff of an autumn bonfire, the first words of a play, and the first sip of an old wine (and also the second and third).

— C[harles] Lee,
An Almanac of Reading,
(New York: Coward McCann, p. 5).